DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-48 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Statement of allowance is in reference to independent claims 1, 13, 25, and 37. All other claims are dependent on these claims.

The invention is directed to a method, system, and program for providing an entitled price in an electronic transaction. A user sends a request for an entitled price from a public electronic environment (e.g. Internet). The request is automatically routed to a private electronic environment (e.g. a network behind a firewall) where the price is obtained in real time. The price is then returned to the requestor via the public environment.

The reasons for allowance are set forth in the decision by the Board of Patent and Appeals And Interferences (see BPA&I decision dated 4/23/2007).

Art Unit: 3625

Discussion of the most relevant prior art:

The following references have been identified as the most relevant prior art to the claimed invention.

(i) US 6,889,197 B2 to Lidow: Lidow substantially discloses the claimed invention.

However, Lidow does not teach or suggest that the price is obtained in real time (see BPA&I decision dated 4/23/2007).

(ii) WO 98/10382 to AT&T, Corp. ("WIPO"): WIPO directed to a system and method for forwarding billing information (i.e. price) to a billing entity for transactions conducted over the Internet (i.e. public network) from within an intranet (i.e. private network).

However, WIPO does not teach or suggest that the price is obtained in real time.

(iii) Dialog File 15 ("Dialog"): Dialog teaches that when a dealer submits an order data, American Quantum's server returns a final price in 30 seconds (i.e. real time) (see Abstract). However, Dialog fails to teach or suggest that the request is automatically routed to a private electronic environment from a public electronic environment.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
